

North Pacific Humpback Whale Migration

Find a migration route from the waters off Alaska to the protected waters of Hawai'i.

Humpback whales live in all ocean basins around the world. They travel great distances every year and have one of the longest migrations of any mammal on the planet.

