Workshop description –

Workshops include instruction and practice of storytelling performance technique and exercises to support literacy and school curriculum. Webinar instruction has been developed in coordination with the Child Development Resource Connection PEEL of Ontario, Canada. Several simple stories appropriate for different age levels will be learned and practiced. The workshop will include discussion of how to adapt written texts as well as how to create original stories with student participation. In person exercises include theatre games, exercises to encourage syntactical thinking process, and exercises to encourage vocal and physical fluidity.
